SNOOKER

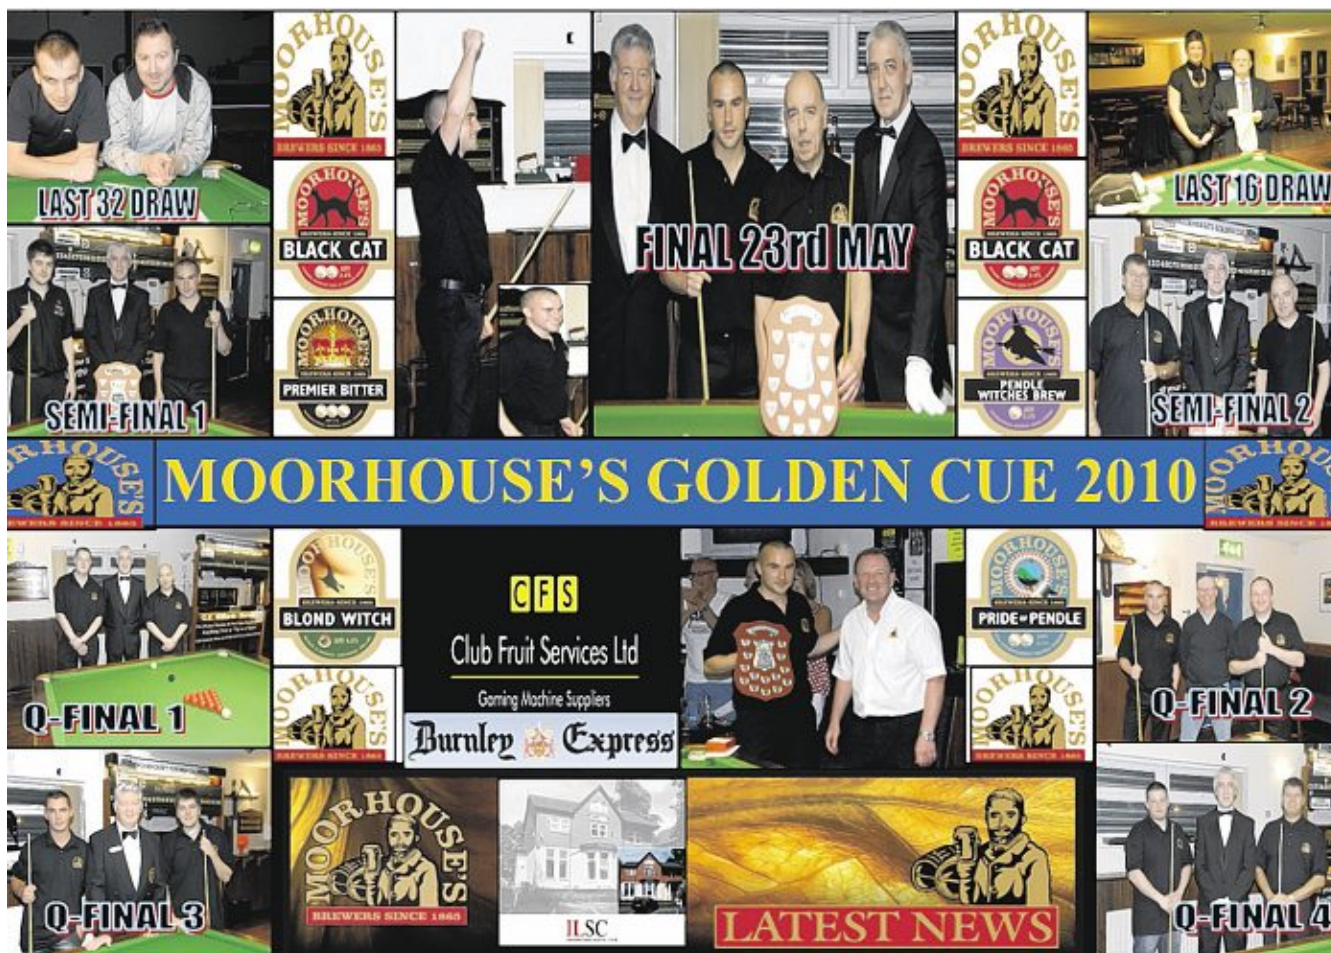

JIMMY Waddington brushed off the distraction of a fire evacuation to win the 2010 Moorhouse's Golden Cue Final at Ighten Leigh Social Club.

The evacuation was, thankfully, a false alarm, and Lamb Club cuedist Waddington kept his concentration to beat Colne Legion's Dean Emmott 4-1 in an engrossing match.

Waddington was in charge for the majority of the final, and despite no large breaks, a crowd of over 120 spectators were kept entertained.

David Grant of Moorhouse's presented the trophy and £500 first prize to Waddington, while Emmott earned £250 for his efforts.

Referees Dave Howe and John Timperley also received mementos of the competition.

THE heatwave we were experiencing last week got the bream feeding in many stretches of the Leeds and Liverpool Canal.

Some good nets were reported, and Paul Newton had a nice two-hour session near tuf mix length at Barden, taking bream of around the 4lb mark from his very first cast.

Paul tells me he landed nine fish altogether, but they didn't seem to want to feed on his maggot baits, bread and corn being the bait.

Good reports of nice roach and bream at Walverden, but one angler had a swimmer surface in front of him after swimming 30 yards underwater, near the end of his rod.

It will only take a carp angler to hook one of these youths and they will be in trouble - the shock of being hooked could be fatal.

The results of matches at Cornfield Farm are as follows: 1, A. O'Neil (56-0-0); 2, B. Pound (48-8-0); 3, D. Wells (40-15-0).

1, I. Fisk (40-0-0); 2, D. Price (38-5-0); 3, D. Well (38-0-0).

1, J. Smith (75-1-0); 2, D. Wells (54-7-0); 3, I. Fisk (54-4-0).

1, J. Leeds (76-2-0); 2, A. O'Neil (58-8-0); 3, D. Wells (50-3-0).

Points Scoring System

Each team you choose correctly as the top two in the group earns 5 points. Quarter final predictions earn 10 points, Semi finals 15 points, final prediction 20 points. Correct prediction of the final winner earns a further 25 points. No points are awarded for third place play off. If you correctly predict the whole tournament from round 2, you could earn a maximum of 285 points. The tie breaker will apply in the event of a points tie.

Tie Breaker: When will the first goal be scored in the Cup final (in minutes and seconds)?
